Research Statement

My research is concerned with the architecture of language and its formal and computational modelling across languages (also on the basis of experimental results), with a special focus on clitics, frequency effects, the exploration of the syntax–prosody interface, phonology, and grammar architecture in general.

Education

- | | |
|------|---|
| 2015 | PhD in Linguistics, University of Konstanz
Thesis: The Syntax-Prosody Interface in Lexical Functional Grammar |
| 2007 | State Exam, University of Konstanz
Subjects: English and German Literature and Linguistics |

Professional Experience

- | | |
|---------------------|--|
| Since April 2019 | Lecturer, University of Konstanz |
| Apr 2022 - Apr 2025 | Lecturer, Goethe University Frankfurt |
| Sep 2020 - Sep 2021 | Visiting researcher (with Prof. John Kingston and Prof. Kristine Yu), University of Massachusetts, Amherst. |
| Apr 2018 - Apr 2019 | Research scientist, University of Konstanz
Project: Research Unit ‘Questions at the Interfaces’ |
| Apr 2017 - Mar 2018 | Substitute professorship for the Chair of English Linguistics, University of Konstanz |
| Oct 2016 - Apr 2017 | Research scientist, University of Konstanz
50% Project: Research Unit ‘Questions at the Interfaces’
→ (P4) Information Structure and Questions in Urdu/Hindi
50% Assistant to the Lehrstuhl für Anglistische Sprachwissenschaft |
| Oct 2015 - Oct 2016 | Visiting researcher (with Prof. Alice Turk), Edinburgh University |

Oct 2013 - Oct 2015	Research scientist, University of Konstanz Project: LingVisAnn → Theoretic and experimental work on the syntax-prosody interface
Dec 2012 - Mar 2015	Research scientist, University of Konstanz Project: VisArgue → Automatic annotation of discourse information on the basis of linguistic cues
Mar 2009 - Feb 2013	Research scientist, University of Konstanz Project: Urdu grammar development → Development of a large-scale grammar for Urdu within the XLE (Xerox Linguistic Environment) parsing/generation platform. → Development of a computational morphology and a transliterator for Urdu with the Xerox finite state calculus.
(Oct 2010 - Oct 2011)	Maternity leave (twins)
Jul 2007 - Oct 2007	Research Intern, Palo Alto Research Center (PARC), CA, USA. Project: Computational implementation of English nominal compounds
2005 - 2008	Research assistant, University of Konstanz

Teaching

Konstanz:

Note: All courses taught in English unless otherwise specified.

WS 2025/2026	Core Components A (Introduction to phonetics, phonology and morphology)
WS 2025/2026	Einführung in die Linguistik/Introduction to Linguistics (in German)
SS2025	Research Colloquium for MA students (with M. Zymła)
SS2025	Finite State Morphology
SS 2024	The Syntax-Prosody Interface: Matches and Mismatches (with T. Zhao)
SS 2023	Finite State Morphology (block seminar)
WS 2021/2022	Finite State Morphology (block seminar)
WS 2019/2020	Einführung in die Linguistik/Introduction to Linguistics (in German)
WS 2019/2020	Linguistic Gaming with Python (with M. Butt)

SS 2019	The Syntax-Prosody Interface: Matches and Mismatches
SS 2019	Java for Linguists
WS 2018/2019	Sociolinguistics
WS 2018/2019	Finite State Morphology (with J. Zipf)
WS 2017/2018	Structure and History of English I (Introduction to the core areas of linguistics)
WS 2017/2018	Finite State Morphology
WS 2017/2018	BA-Kolloquium (in German)
WS 2017/2018	Morphology I
SS 2017	Syntax I
SS 2017	Structure and History of English III (Sociolinguistics)
SS 2017	Morphology II (Interfaces)
SS 2017	Corpuslinguistics and text processing with Perl (with K. Kalouli)
WS 2016	Morphology I
WS 2016	Structure and History of English I (Introduction to the core areas of linguistics, with J. Grijzenhout)
SS 2015	Phonology I
SS 2009	Finite State Morphology (with M. Butt)

Frankfurt:

WS 2024/25	Deutsche Phonologie: Das prosodische Wort (with A. Pressler)
WS 2024/25	Phonetik I (with A. Pressler)
WS 2024/25	Deutsche Phonologie: Das prosodische Wort
WS 2024/25	Phonetik I
SS 2024	Methoden in der Phonologie
SS 2024	Deutsche Phonologie: Das prosodische Wort
WS 2023/24	Phonetik I
WS 2023/24	Deutsche Phonologie: Das prosodische Wort
SS 2023	Einführung in die Linguistik I (Phonetik, Phonologie, Morphologie, Syntax)
SS 2023	Deutsche Phonologie: Das prosodische Wort

WS 2022/23	Phonetik I
WS 2022/23	Einführung in die Linguistik II (Semantik, Pragmatik, Historische Linguistik, Psycholinguistik)
SS 2022	Deutsche Phonologie: Das prosodische Wort
SS 2022	Einführung in die Linguistik I (Phonetik, Phonologie, Morphologie, Syntax)

Honors and Awards

2020	University of Konstanz Award for Teaching Excellence (LUKS) (ranked second in 2017 and 2018)
2017	Wilhelm von Humboldt-prize for the best linguistic dissertation from the German Linguistic Society (DGfS)

Stipends and Grants

2025	3.9-year DFG project with George Walkden on The Prosody of pronouns, prepositions, and prefixes in West Germanic languages , combining work with historical manuscripts with experimental production studies (two PhD positions). The project is part of a large collaborative research center on Silence, Noise and Signal in Language (SFB 1760) .
2024	3-year DFG project extension for the German side of Prosodic structure at the interface between language and speech . PhD position and research assistant position.
2022	2-year project together with George Walkden (University of Konstanz) on Noise and Signal in West Germanic Medieval Manuscripts as part of the research initiative Meaningful Silence and Noise , funded by the AFF of the University of Konstanz. PhD position.
2022	Financial support for a research assistant position from the Goethe (University) Research Academy for Early Career Researchers (GRADE), paid for by the Franz Adickes Stiftungsfonds. (2400 Euro).
2021	Joint project from the DFG and the AHRC on Prosodic structure at the interface between language and speech with Alice Turk from the University of Edinburgh. 3 year PhD position and research assistant position on the German side.

2020	Walter-Benjamin-Stipend from the DFG for a project on Integrating prosodic structure into computational grammars (German and English) at the University of Massachusetts, Amherst. (ca. 60.000 Euro)
2018	Mentorship grant from the Zukunftscolleg Konstanz for a project on Language redundancy and prosodic boundary strength with Alice Turk from the University of Edinburgh. (ca. 2600 Euro)
2017	Project on Clitics in the verbal complex of Iranian languages (including a field study to Iran in October 2017), Committee on Research (AFF), University of Konstanz (ca. 8000 Euro)
2016	Independent Research Start-up Grant for a project on The effect of frequencies on prosodic boundaries (for a cooperation with Alice Turk, University of Edinburgh), Zukunftscolleg, University of Konstanz (ca. 2500 Euro)
Jan - Feb 2009	Research stipend from the Equal Opportunity Office, University of Konstanz
Jan 2009	Reimbursements of travel costs to a conference in Lahore, Pakistan from the DFG

Organizational/Administrative Activities

Administration:

Since 2020	Member of the program chair for the annual conference on Lexical Functional Grammar
Since 2019	Student advisor for the KN Master Speech and Language Processing
2023 - 2025	Equal Opportunity Officer, Department of Linguistics, Frankfurt
2019 - 2020	Staff representative at the Faculty of Humanities council, Konstanz
2019 - 2020	Member of the examination board, Konstanz
2017 - 2020	Member of the ILFGA (International Lexical Functional Grammar Association) Executive committee
2014 - 2015	Staff representative at the Linguistics Department council, Konstanz
2014 - 2015	Member of the examination board (Ständiger Prüfungsausschuss)

Organisation:

Sep 2024	Co-organization of the Symposium Series on Multimodal Communication (MMSYM24), Frankfurt
----------	--

Aug 2019	Co-organization of a Workshop on The Verbal Complex of Iranian Languages in Konstanz
June 2018	Co-organization of SALA-34 in Konstanz
July 2017	Co-organization of the LFG 2017 in Konstanz
Feb 2016	Part of the organization committee of the annual meeting of the German Linguistic Society (DGfS)
Mar 2010	Co-organization of the ParGram meeting in Konstanz
Sep 2009	Co-organization of the DGfS-Computational Linguistics Fall School in Konstanz
